THE WEST BARABOO BULLETIN

SPRING/SUMMER 2020

Greetings West Baraboo Residents and Businesses:

The Village of West Baraboo would like to take this opportunity to reach out and provide some encouragement during these times of challenge and controversy. We encourage you to stay positive, help one another and be part of the solution for a better tomorrow. Hopefully, some memorable words of encouragement can help during these difficult times. I want to share a quote that keeps running through my head and gives me hope during this crazy time (can't place who said this), I hope it does the same for all of you. .."In the midst of chaos, there is also opportunity." Don't be afraid to reach out for help or guidance from the Village, the Baraboo Area Chamber of Commerce and Sauk County. We are all here to find help and get us through this Coronavirus Pandemic.

This new virus is wreaking havoc on our unprepared world. By now, there are many opinions on how this epidemic has disrupted our lives. Let us take time to thank all the people who cannot work from home. Those who continue to be exposed. Those who help support and provide services during this scary time. Let us work on ways we can get through this and help each other

While we encourage social distancing, the right attitude and any act of kindness can help make a huge difference in someone's life. We have no idea how everyone is being affected or what each individual is going through. There is always someone hurting a little more

May we all find a way to see some light in all of this darkness. Be safe and stay home if you can.
